OBITUARY.

Mrs. Agnes Louisa Leslie, wife of Gen Theodore S. Peck, who passed away at her home 275 College street, at 2:15 this morning, was stricken with apoplexy January 1, 1917, since which time she has been partially paralyzed. Throughout her long illness she has been a patient sufferer, thinking not of herself but of those about her.
Mrs. Peck was born in Toronto, Ontario, the daughter of William and Louisa M. (Webb) Leslie, her father coming from the home of his ancestors in Dundee, Scotland, to Upper York (Toronto) Canada. He and his brother James were the original proprietors of the Toronto Examiner, later the Toron-to Globe, the great liberal paper of Canada, the site of the present Globe building having been Mrs. Peck's birthplace. With her family she belonged to the Scottish Clan "Leslie." Her mother's home was in Champlain N. Y., and on her maternal side the Webb line of ancestors is traced back to the year 1350, including many English people of note.

She was a charter member of Green Mountain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the first State regent of Vermont; a member of the Woman's Relief Corps of Stannard Post. G. A. R.; of the Humane society of Bur-lington, and for many years was presi-dent of the board of managers of the Home for Friendless Women. She was a devoted member of the College Street Congregational Church and found constant content in manifold good works.

To whatever interests she became asso clated Mrs. Peck gave faithful and un-tiring attention, her life being an example of the high ideals which inspired her, and her memory will ever be cher ished by a wide circle of friends.

She is survived by her husband, Gen Cheodora Agnes Peck. The funeral services will be held at 2:30 Saturday at the house, 275 College street.

Miss Lida M. Thompson.

A telegram received by Martin S. Vilas of this city told of the death Tuesday morning, following an operation on November 7, of his niece Lida M. Thompson, at a sanitarium at Battle Creek Mich.

Miss Thompson was the daughter of S. A. and Emily Vilas Thompson, the ing oldest sister of Mr. Vilas, and was 39 ford.

She was born in Clay Center, Kans., but after the death of her mother when she was a small child, most of her early life was spent in Swanton with Mrs Eunice Frink, sister of her father.

Miss Thompson was graduated from the State normal school at Johnson, Vt., in 1896. Until the beginning of the present school year, her time since had been devoted to teaching. She taught for several years in the public schools of Proctor, and for a number of years in the schools of Stamford, Conn.

Miss Thompson was a notably bril liant student, both in her work before teaching and in her mastery of what ever department of teaching she followed. She was conspicuous in intro ducing several new lines of work in New York city, and received several promotions there, especially because of her capacity for accomplishment and grasp of detail. She was of unusual strength of character and steadfastness of purpose and was guided by a constant desire to aid others.

Wherever she taught, she obtained the respect and affection of her pupils and the esteem and regard of all who knew her. She had before her a fu-ture of unusual promise in the work to which she had devoted her life and hoped during the year of leave of absence allowed her from New York city to regain her health, worn down by overwork and to return to the boys and very well to the homes of the ladies of girls in whose welfare she took very the Navy League who are collecting great interest. # UNIVERSITY NOTES.

sophomores defeated the freshme in Proc night events Friday by a score of 67 to 25. In the afternoon seven freshmen were captured by the sophemores which netted them seven points. The first dummy rush consisted of the sophs trying to rush the dummy twenty yards beyond the walk joining Prospect street and University place. They did not succeed. This gave the freshmen 10 points. The second rush was similar, the difference being that the freshmen attempted to rush the dummy the same distance and failed. This gave 10 points to the sophomores. In the third rush the dummy was in a tree with two or three sophomores guarding it, the ree being surrounded by sophomores freshmen succeeded in getting many of the sophomores away from the tree but could not get up in it to get the dummy out. This rush gave the sophomores 10 points. The men then adjourned to the annex where the wrestling, boxing and keg rush were held. The heavyweight wrestling match was between Blood, '20, and Lougee, '21. This was won by Blood with two falls. The sophomores gained 10 points on this match. In the lightweight, however, be-tween O'Brien, '20, and Taylor, '21, they were not so fortunate. This match was won by Taylor, '21, with one fall and two draws giving 10 points to the freshmen. The heavyweight boxing match between Bowman, '20, and Berry, '21, was a draw giving five points to each class. The lightweight boxing match between Raymond. '20, and Branch, '21, was won by the sophomores, giving 10 more points to the lass. The next event, the keg rush, was won by the ten men representing the sophomores, who pushed the keg a few feet over the line held by the freshmen ten. This event gave the sophomore class 15 points. All events were run off by the Boulder society. The final score was 67 to 25 in favor of the sophomores.

ALUMNAE WAR WORK.

Women Graduates and Students at University of Vermont Join Porces.

War work is claiming the attention of everybody these days and the U. V. M. Alumnae club of Burlington is not to be a back number in this regard. A movement has recently been organized by the members of this club to help on the work and, at the same time, bring together the alumnae of the city and the girls of the iniversity for the purpose of a better acquaintance between the two groups. The plan as presented to the undergraduate women of the university has received the hearty endorsement of all four of the classes, and virtually all of the young women volunteered to take up the as outlined.

The plan is this: The local members of the U. V. M. Alumnse club and the young women of the university will be groupe alphabetically into four groups, the alum-nae being intermingled with the under-graduates. Each one of these groups will meet every fourth Saturday, part of them in the afternoon and part in the evening, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Votey on Main street. The first meeting will be held next Saturday. It was not considered practicable for all to try to get together at the same time, so this plan was adopted for the convenience of everybody concerned. and each group will meet once a month. In the meantime, the alumnae and the undergraduate girls will knit at home for the work which is to be taken up. This work will embrace three distinct branches of war aid, the Red Cross, the Navy League and work for the French wounded, which includes the making of clothes for the orphan children of France. The Red Cross will supply the yarn for the work in its department, and the Navy League will do the same. The material for the French aid will have to be fur-nished by the club and this is being done by a series of concerts and entertainments of which the lecture on "Nationalism in Music," given by Mrs. J. W. Votey last Saturday was the first. The undergraduate girls will be put to no expense ever to carry on this work. All that is asked of them is their time and co-operation, and this they are freely giving.

An executive committee composed of eight members of the local Alumnae club Miss May O. Boynton, president, Mrs. J. W. Votey, Miss Sarah E. Potter, Miss Jennie L. Rowell, Mrs. L. M. Simpson, Mrs. S. D. Hodge, Mrs. Ellen Johnson and Miss Martha O'Neill, and the vice-presidents of the four college classes, Miss Helen Magner, '18, Miss Florence Cum-mings, '19, Miss Katherine Pease, '20, and Miss Bernice Byington, '21, will have charge of carrying on the war ald work. # 1,600 PEOPLE PRESENT.

Fifth Annual Concert and Ball of Po lice Department Last Night. The fifth annual concert and ball of the Burlington police department at the Armory last night was attended by a throng of people from all walks of life in this city and vicinity which was comlargest gatherings that has ever attended a ball in this city. The ball was ushered into being shortly after nine o'clock with the grand march. This was led by Mayor and Mrs. J. Holmes Jackson, followed by Chief of Police P. J. Russell and Mrs. John O'Nell. After these couples came the officers of the police force with their wives and friends, the whole standing out as the most prominent feature on the evening's program. The hall had been tastefully decorated for the occasion by members of the police force with American flags and bunting. badge worn by the policemen; at the other end of the hall was strung across the wall an Irish flag. In addition to the interior decorations, the exterior of the building was made bright by a large electric star which had been put in place in the after-electrician. Previous to the grand march, Brown's orchestra furnished an enjoyable concert of four pieces, "The Light Cavalry,"

"The Debutante," "Poet and Peasant," and "Princess Pat." During the remainder of the night and away into the morning the entire afternoon and well into the the orchestra furnished excellent music night addressing the boxes to the boys for dancing.

The dance order last night consisted of Patrick Henry. About midnight there was intermission for luncheon.

A word should be said about the excel-ient punch which was served last night. It was made under the personal direction of Officer Victor Fisher, a past master at The committee of arrangements consist man, G. Fraser, F. G. Colt, M. Curtis; re ception, members of the department.

The honorary committee consisted of J. Holmes Jackson, mayor; Edward Laval-lee, J. H. Quinn. F. N. Latour, commis-sioners; Patrick J. Russell, chief; Patrick J. Cosgrove, deputy chief; floor direc J. J. Brothers; assistant floor directors, A. L. Brockney, W. G. Collins, Joseph Mo-Gowan; nide, members of the department.

NAVY BOYS REMEMBERED

Burlington Women Sending Out Christ mas Boxes Containing Luxuries. Words of highest commendation were forthcoming yesterday from the officer( and navy men at the local recruiting fested by the ladies of Burlington for their large and seemingly over-abundant supplies of candy, eatables, pipes cigarettes, cigars and tobaccos of al kinds and description that were sent There was also in evidence in one end of the boys from this the hall a large shield, to represent the State now in the service of the navy. In this connection special mention it due Mrs. E. D. Worthen, Mrs. B. H.

The idea at the outset was to have the motherless boys remembered at Christmas time, but when the ladies by Earl K. Pressey, the city got together they determined that every mother's son should be remem-bered, regardless of whether his mother was living at the present time or not The result of this determination is that the place was literally swamped with boxes. Six men kept busy throughout in the various branches of the service The dance order last night consisted of 24 numbers, which were called by Officer Patrick Henry. About midnight there mend the women hereabouts highly. The proposition was put up to them by Ensign C. A. Harris at a recent meeting of the Athena club.
